Revised and Enlarged

VINDICATION OFBY
REV. ARTHUR

Two Volumes. 8vo. Cloth. Copious
Mr. Gorham regrets that, owing to the loss so long delayed. It will be ready in March, 1911.
This work had the unique honour paid to it of being cyclical signed by the Rt. Rev. Dr. Littlejohn, mour, Bishop of Springfield, and the Rt.

Mr Gorham has the privilege of present-letters received from the most distinguished mending this great work:

From the Archbishop and Primate of Australia.

"The writer has adopted an exhaustive method in his treatment of the subject, and the book is a valuable repertory of all that is pertinent in argument and information about the question. I may find myself differing now and then from particular assertions of opinion, but admire and appreciate Dr. Lowndes' successful presentation of the whole argument, in his remarkable 'Vindication.'"

From the Bishop of Aberdeen and Orkney.

"You have conferred a very great boon on the whole Church. The work is of inestimable value to the whole Church throughout the world."

From the Rt. Rev. F. D. HUNTINGTON, D. D., Bishop of Central New York.

"Making and filling a permanent place, in the highest literature, for a defence of the Faith to which scholars, authorities, and generations to come must look with grateful satisfaction and for instruction."

From the Bishop of Truro.

"I am grateful for the large learning and reverent mind which Dr. Lowndes has inspired into his work."

Bishop of Long Island, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Sey-Rev. Dr. Coleman, Bishop of Delaware.

ing the following few extracts from the many scholars in the Anglican Communion, com-

From the Rt. Rev. and Hon. AUGUSTUS LEGGE, D. D., Bishop of Lichfield.

"A work of permanent value and setting forth fully and clearly the principles of Scriptural and Primitive Authority and National Church Government."

From the Rt. Rev. MANDELL CREIGHTON, D. D., Bishop of London.

"Dr. Lowndes' Vindication of Anglican Orders is a work of great importance, and is a monument of careful research.

"The whole Church is under a debt of gratitude to the author."

From the Bishop of Los Angeles.

"The books form a marvellous compendium of information. I feel that Dr. Lowndes has conferred a great boon upon the Anglican Communion."

From the Bishop of Southern Florida.

"I have been able to enjoy the great pleasure of reading and indeed of going over for the second time the admirable work of the Rev. Dr. Lowndes, 'Vindication of Anglican Orders.' I have thoroughly enjoyed it. I regard it as a monumental work, if not an epoch-making book, at the very least an epoch-marking production."

VINDICATION OF

From Bishop Mitchinson, Master of Pembroke.

"I took the opportunity of my month's residence at Gloucester this Christmas to study Dr. Lowndes' Vindication of Anglican Orders and am much impressed by its thoroughness, its lucidity, its excellent arrangement, and its general completeness. It will, unless I am deceived in my judgment, be a work of permanent value to the Church, and may fairly be expected to take its place as a standard work in Anglican Apologetics."

From the Bishop of Goulburn.

"The method adopted of examining the Papal Bull, sentence by sentence, gives the work its particular form, and no doubt the end which the author had in view is by this means most successfully carried out—that end being the complete exposure of the historical misstatements and the theological fallacies of that pretentious document.

"The whole Anglican Communion, therefore, has reason to thank God for the accumulated learning and marked ability which has so ably vindicated the historical and spiritual validity of its Sacred Orders; and I earnestly pray that the work as a whole may be widely studied, and may serve more and more, as time goes on, for the confirmation of faith, the settlement of doubts, and the conviction of gainsayers."

From the Bishop of Newcastle, New South Wales.

"The work is well worthy of its character as a 'Vindication.' Its historical and liturgical matter gives a solid basis and cannot be shaken. The tone is scholarly and calm, and the whole work will stand as standard literature on the subject it discusses."

From Bishop Nicolai, Chief of the Russian Ecclesiastical Mission in Japan.

"After perusing the work, I found it the best on the subject among the others, and fully appreciate the weight of all arguments in it against the pretensions of the Roman Church."

From the Bishop of Gibraltar.

"It will be recognized as the Standard Authority on the subject with which it deals."

EDWIN S. GORHAM, Publisher

ANGLICAN ORDERS

PRECEDING PAGES

From the Bishop of Pittsburgh.

"As an American, one can only render thanks to God that so much learning and-skill has been manifested by priests on this side of the water in the production of an argument which will surely command the attention and elicit the commendation of Churchmen the world over."

From the Bishop of Rochester.

"It was a happy thought on the part of American Churchmen to draw us all together in the matter, and certainly we of the older Church gratefully welcome such a reinforcement from the younger."

From the Bishop of Bangor.

"A clear presentation of the Anglican position in regard to Holy Orders. It will take its place as a standard book in showing the hollowness of Roman claims and pretensions, and the rightful claim of our Church to be considered a branch of the Catholic Church of Christ."

From the Bishop of Marquette.

"I know of no work which contains an equally rich treasure of information on the whole subject of Holy Orders, as Dr. Lowndes' masterly 'Vindication of Angliean Orders.'"

From the Bishop of Derry and Raphoe.

"Learned, comprehensive, and reasonable. A treasury of information."

From the Bishop of Ohio.

"Its spirit is firm but temperate, in view of the aggravations that at times must excite the defender of his Orders. Its scholarship is of course unquestioned. Its conclusions are so plain and so definite and so admirably put, that, 'the wayfaring man, though a fool, need not err' in grasping them."

From the Bishop of Wellington.

"Of very great value, and the greater because it is written independently, and confirms in a remarkable degree the conclusions at which other writers have arrived, besides presenting new facts of great importance."

Gorham's Complete System of Sunday School Instruction

By the REV. DR. GWYNNE
Edited by THE BISHOP OF ALBANY

Sales over one million in English

LEADING FEATURES

Uniformity, Repetition, Variety, Completeness

There are four distinct yet uniform series, making together one continuous and complete system of "sound doctrine," from "Infant" Class to "Bible" Class.

CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE SERIES

1. "MANUAL OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE."

On the Church Catechism, adapted to the Christian Year.

Senior Grade, for Teachers and Scholars,	40 cents
Middle Grade	15 cents
Junior Grade	10 cents
Primary Grade	6 cents

OLD TESTAMENT SERIES

II. "THE GOSPEL IN THE OLD TESTAMENT."

Illustrating the Church Catechism from the Old Testament.
Pictures in all grades.

Senior Grade, for Teachers and Scholars,	25 cents
Middle, Junior, and Primary, each	12 cents

NEW TESTAMENT SERIES

III. "THE GOSPEL IN THE NEW TESTAMENT."

Illustrating the Church Catechism from the New Testament.
Pictures in Primary Grade.

Senior Grade, for Teachers and Scholars,	25 cents
Middle, Junior, and Primary, each	12 cents

These manuals have a definiteness, a steadfastness of purpose, and a distinctly positive tone, which is most refreshing, especially in these days when doubt and denial of the Church's Faith seem to be the fashion. It is our duty, and it is the purpose of these manuals, to teach, not what "Modern Scholarship" proclaims as the results of its painful research, but those foundation truths the Church has always held and taught and which no "Modern Scholarship" has taught or can teach.

"A more successful attempt to supply a great need has never been made in the American Church."—Churchman (N. Y.).

LEADING FEATURES

1. The lessons are meant for all the children from six to fourteen, and cover, with varying fulness, in each of the four grades, "all things which a Christian ought to know and believe to his soul's health." They are narrative in form, most carefully analyzed, and lead in every case to a practical conclusion.

2. Bold-faced type is used for the opening sentence in each paragraph, thus presenting clearly to the eye the substance of what follows.

3. All questions are reserved to the end, and no answers are given, while written work and reviews are also provided for.

4. Every lesson has a half-tone picture, and there are also helpful diagrams and tables.

5. A list of first lines of carefully selected hymns for each lesson (as a provision against waste of valuable time in the session); a bird's-eye view of the contents of the Bible; a list of books for further study, and an index and glossary, are found in the Senior or Teachers' grade.

OPINIONS

"We have devoted more space than usual [a column and a half] to this work, because we believe it is destined to take a leading place among the manuals for instruction now happily increasing in number. We wish it all success."—Church Times (London, 1909).

"Mr. Gwynne's Preface in the Senior Grade volume deserves the careful study of all parents and teachers. It is full of wisdom and the results of long experience. We should wish to encourage its circulation as much as we can."—Guardian (London, 1909).

"We readily join in the Bishop of London's hope that the book may prove useful to many on both sides of the Atlantic."—Bookseller (London).

"In the smaller, ungraded schools, they are the best books we have today, to use during the transition period to the really graded school."—S. S. Commission Bulletin (New York).

Books by Rev. Walker Gwynne

Confirmation and the Way of Life

A Manual of Twelve Instructions on Holy Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Communion. Paper, 35 cts.; by mail 40 cts. Cloth, 75 cts. net; by mail 80 cts.

This book is intended as a manual for the younger clergy in preparing their classes, and also for placing in the hands of those many adult candidates who cannot be induced to come to hear addresses and who need instruction in the fundamentals of Christian doctrine and Churchly practice. It covers clearly and simply the whole range of theology and the practice of the spiritual life.

"Thoroughly useful to young clergymen."—Church Quarterly Review (London).

"It will not be laid aside and forgotten by any sensible person when Confirmation is over."—Bishop Seymour of Springfield.

"I shall recommend it freely to the clergy of my diocese and distribute it myself."—Bishop Hall of Vermont.

A Manual for Confirmation Candidates

Being Part II. of "Confirmation and the Way of Life," and intended for the hands of younger candidates. It contains questions (without answers) on the Instructions in Part I. Selected Scriptural Readings and Special Prayers. Paper, 12 cts.; by mail 14 cts.

Some Purposes of Paradise

Second Edition, Revised, with Additions. Cloth, 75 cts.; by mail 80 cts.

A devotional consideration of the Middle Life of the Soul, while in the place of departed spirits. Some of the chapter headings are: Paradise a Place of Rest; Progressive Development in Paradise; Increasing Knowledge in Paradise; Purification in Paradise; Life in Paradise Active; Life in Paradise Organized; Shall we Pray for those in Paradise? Prayers for the Departed; Heaven.

"It is the Catholic doctrine of the Intermediate State, without philosophy or vain deceits."—Churchman.

"Presented in a strong manner."—Trinity Record (New York).

"The most perfect and satisfactory little book [on the subject] I have ever seen."—M. W.

Whittaker's Series of S. S. Lessons

(Joint Diocesan System, Approved by the General Convention)

- The Lessons are studied every week by more than 300,000 children in our Sunday Schools, three-quarters of the total number.
- They give a Uniform series of lessons for Sunday study throughout the Church.
- The scheme is heartily endorsed by nearly all the Bishops and Diocesan S. S. Committees.
- The periodicals published in connection with the lessons are properly graded and adapted to the various ages of the scholars.
- The subjects of the lessons, for the sake of variety and interest, are arranged in six months' courses.
- The cost per annum is much less than any other system that gives a full year's course.
- The helps for the teachers are carefully prepared, and aid directly in the teaching of the lessons.

THE PARISH VISITOR

Fifty-seventh year of publication.

- It is devoted chiefly to essential practical truth, germane to the Christian Life. Its material is forceful, spirited, convincing, and sane.
- It is made interesting and entertaining by story, incident, and illustration.
- It contains a department for children, and can be introduced into the home through the Sunday School.
- It has justified its mission, and though in the field over fifty years, it is kept strictly in touch with current thought and methods, and is fully adapted to present day conditions.
- Its columns are not open to general advertising, nor to statistical Church news, but are entirely devoted to religious literature.

THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN

A weekly illustrated magazine of 16 pages, containing stories, pictures; Church teaching, and news. Intended to be given out through the Sunday School and to carry simple teaching concerning the Church into families where, too often, such teaching does not reach in any other form. THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN is thus not only a pleasing aid for use in the Sunday School, but also the most effective missionary aid in the Church for reaching the unchurched population at home. There is also contained, each week, a Sunday School Lesson by Elmer E. Lofstrom, Professor of Religious Pedagogics at Seabury Divinity School.

OVERWHELMING MAJORITY FOR REVISED VERSION

At Cincinnati, on Oct. 19, 1910, the General Convention of

THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Adopted a resolution granting the permissive use of the Revised Version for Morning and Evening Prayer.

THE AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE

Edited by the American Revision Committee is used and recommended by the President and Professors of all the leading Colleges and Theological Seminaries in the United States, because it is the most authentic and correct version of the Bible ever produced.

For these reasons and for its simplicity and accuracy, the AMERICAN STANDARD has been adopted by, and is the basis of all lesson comments in the Sunday School publications of the religious publishing houses.

The AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE is the standard text book used in 41 Universities, 44 Theological Seminaries, and 68 Colleges.

Endorsed by the American Bible Society

SINCE THE YEAR 1816, THE AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY has published only the King James Version of the Scriptures, but, recognizing the great value of the work of the American Committee, and to meet the demands of Churches and Sunday Schools, the Society has recently had its charter amended so as to enable it to publish the AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE.

This endorsement of the AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE by the AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY emphasizes the great importance of this work, and is in harmony with all the other great religious authorities.

The AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE is made with the Apocrypha in the following styles:

HAND EDITION, PRICE $1.25 TO $5.00
LECTERN EDITION, PRICE $20.00 and $22.00

All styles of binding and various sizes of type, so that the needs of every one can be supplied in this version. Price 35 cents to $20. A postal card will bring an interesting and instructive booklet, free.

"Easily first among Church Directories."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY has achieved a remarkable success and has made for itself a permanent place in the history and progress of the Church in the United States of America. There is nothing like it. During the sessions of the General Convention of 1910 the following telegram was received by Dr. Lloyd, which carries with it a striking testimony to its worth:

"Mail quick copy nineteen ten Directory to John W. Wood, Hotel Sinton, Cincinnati, bill to us. Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society."

The Living Church, Milwaukee, Feb. 26, 1910, says:

"It is a pleasure to welcome the fourth issue of Lloyd's Clerical Directory. It is of value to all who have to do with the matter of clerical preferments, and to many others. We hope that sufficient encouragement may be extended to enable the editor to bring out this work annually."

The Rev. Thomas Patrick Hughes, D.D., LL.D., M.R.A.S., Author of "A Dictionary of Islam," "A Government Text-Book in the Pushto Language," "American Ancestry," etc. will write an Introduction to the forthcoming (fifth) edition of LLOYD'S CLERICAL DIRECTORY on "Church Law." So timely a contribution from the pen of so learned an authority as Dr. Hughes will make LLOYD for 1911 of the greatest possible value to every clergyman and layman of the Church in America.

THE HISTORIANS AND THE ENGLISH REFORMATION

By the Rev. JOHN S. LITTELL. 8vo, cloth, price $2.50 net. By mail $2.68.

This is a careful examination of works of History, English and American, and especially of American School Histories, in order to show how the critical time of the Reformation in the Church of England is presented to general readers and to pupils in our public schools. Some startling facts are brought forth.

"An authority for the conclusive settlement of a controverted question is now at hand in The Historians and the English Reformation, by the Rev. J. S. Littell. Did the Church of England originate under Henry VIII., or a thousand years earlier under the preaching of the missionary monk Augustine? Roman Catholic writers father it on the royal Bluebeard; Protestant writers vary, but with the weight of opinion on the other side. The present volume effectively disposes of the claim as to Henry VIII. by documents which admit of no reasonable gainsaying. Its record also of the error which abounds in writers on both sides of the question is well nigh cyclopædic, a pretty complete dictionary of the misinformation current on this subject. (The Young Churchman Co., Milwaukee, Wis.)"—Outlook.

"A valuable study in Church History is provided by John Stockton Littell in The Historians and the English Reformation. The author's sympathies are indicated by his choice of a publishing house, The Young Churchman Company. It is only fair, however, to admit that he is as fair as possible, and if an author great or small differs from him he quotes him just the same and then proceeds to prove his unreliability. . . . The motive of the volume is, of course, as a line from a familiar hymn phrases it, to 'conquer sinner, comfort saint' in the matter of the catholicity of the Anglican Church; and the best verdict we can pass upon it is that it has convinced the writer of this review of the justice of the Anglican claim to antiquity and continuity."—Springfield Republican.

BISHOP GRAFTON'S AUTOBIOGRAPHY

A Journey Godward of Δούλος Ἰησοῦ Χριστοῦ (a Servant of Jesus Christ). By CHARLES CHAPMAN GRAFTON, S.T.D., Bishop of Fond du Lac. With Photogravure and other Illustrations. Price $2.50 net. Postage 18 cts.

This is a volume of the most intense interest to Churchmen in America and in England. Bishop Grafton's Reminiscences cover considerably more than a half century of activity in the Church. He was one of the pioneers of the Catholic Movement in America; one of the founders of the Order of the Cowley Fathers in England; was influential in English Ecclesiastical affairs, intimate with Fr. Benson, Fr. O'Neil, Canon Carter, Dr. Neale, Dr. Pusey, and others; brought Sisters of St. Margaret to this country; founded the Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity; was rector, for many years of the Church of the Advent, Boston; consecrated Bishop of Fond du Lac; and has always wielded a strong influence in the American Church. His journey to Russia in the interests of Reunion, and his advocacy of the Polish Catholic Bishop Kozlowski are among the most important subjects treated of in this Autobiography, and contain important records of those events in American Church History. There are also Notes of Meditations and abundance of devotional thought.

"The interest aroused by the perusal of this autobiographical volume is of a very varied character. . . . Samples of meditations, instructions, and spiritual addresses of a very high order are given, which make the book a valuable addition to the library of devotion. . . . For many readers the chief interest of the book will lie in the relation of monastic obedience to episcopal discipline. . . . We prize the book, not only for the many valuable elements of its materials, or for its fine portrait of the Bishop in his magnificent robes, but because it gives us, in the Cowley group, a little picture of Father Benson, sitting in a most characteristic attitude, in his old age, waiting like St. John among his children, and still teaching them to love one another."—(London) Church Quarterly Review.

THE CURE OF SOULS

A Manual for the Clergy, Based Chiefly upon English and Oriental Authorities. By WILLIAM WALTER WEBB, D.D., Bishop of Milwaukee. With a Commendatory Preface by ISAAC LEA NICHOLSON, sometime Bishop of Milwaukee. Cloth, $1.50 net. Postage 15 cts.

This book, entirely reset and from new plates, is a reprint of a volume that was first issued some twenty-five years ago and has been out of print for several years. It is a work of practical guidance for those of the clergy who are obliged to deal with moral problems as presented to them in Confession. Its statements are reinforced by a great mass of citations from authorities which appear in footnotes, and which will enable the reader to discover what are the grounds for views expressed.

"That a most useful work has been accomplished by the earlier edition of this book cannot be doubted. . . . We predict for it a welcome reception on the part of the clergy and an extended usefulness in the Church."—The Living Church.

MUSIC IN THE CHURCH

The Bishop Hale Lectures, 1909. By PETER CHRISTIAN LUTKIN, Mus. Doc., Dean of the School of Music, Northwestern University. Cloth, $1.00 net. By mail $1.10.

"The book will be of great usefulness and interest to those interested in Church music. The author understands his subject."—Boston Transcript.

"No clergyman, organist, or choirmaster can afford to leave unread a volume so rich in historical and practical facts. . . . The real, practial value of the book lies in the clear-cut, keen insight of the author into the everyday problems of the parish priest and his struggles with the music of the parish."—HORATIO W. BROWNE, in Michigan Churchman.

HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL CHURCH IN SWEDEN

The Bishop Hale Lectures, 1910. By the Rt. Rev. JOHN WORDSWORTH, D.D., Bishop of Salisbury. Ready in January.

The Bishop of Salisbury made his trip to this country in the autumn of 1910 especially for the purpose of delivering these lectures under the auspices of the Western Theological Seminary, Chicago. They comprise the first complete presentation of the subject to be made in English.

THE CHURCH OF SWEDEN AND THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

By the Rt. Rev. G. MOTT WILLIAMS, D.D., Bishop of Marquette, Member of the Anglo-Swedish Conference of 1909. Boards, 50 cts. net. By mail 55 cts.

"Brings together for the first time in careful and close translation the official documents and formularies of the Swedish Church that bear on the question of its orders."—The Churchman.

"It is a most interesting book and contains a vast deal of not generally known information."—Southern Churchman.

A handsome Souvenir of General Convention and a volume of permanent biographical value.

OBER-AMMERGAU AND THE PASSION PLAY

By the Rev. E. HERMITAGE DAY, D.D., F.S.A. 96 pp. 24 illustrations. Parchment cover, 45 cts. net; cloth, 65 cts. net. Postage 5 cts.

"This little volume, giving a concise and accurate account of the Passion Play . . . is most welcome. . . . Will serve as a reference work on the subject."—Bulletin of the American Geographical Society.

"An abundance of good illustrations and tasteful printing make this a neat little volume."—The Nation.

"Will interest both those who have seen the performance and the stay-at-homes."—The Outlook.

THE MYSTERIES OF GOD

By the Rt. Rev. ARTHUR F. WINNINGTON INGRAM, D.D., Lord Bishop of London. Crown 8vo, 318 pages, and uniform with the Bishop's former volumes. Price $1.00. By mail $1.10.

This volume covers the period of Lent, 1910, and includes the ten remarkable sermons preached in different parts of London, together with Questions and Answers given by the Bishop during the services.

LIFE AFTER DEATH

By the Rev. S. C. GAYFORD, Vice-Principal of Cuddesdon Theological College. Cloth $1.00. By mail $1.06.

"We commend the book as the best to be had on the subject, and as being written in a language so simple and clear that one is not confused by difficult theological expressions."—The Living Church.

"Plain, simple, practical, helpful, and immeasurably better than many books which treat of the same subject."—St. Andrew's Cross.

REFLECTED LIGHTS FROM PARADISE

By MARY DUNNICA MICOU. Red line around page, cloth, 50 cts. By mail 55 cts.

"This is a book of comfort in the deeper sense of the word; it strengthens while it consoles. . . . The compiler, following a path of her own, has brought material chiefly new, and the effect is fresh and striking and strong."—Parish Visitor.

HISTORY, AUTHORITY, AND THEOLOGY

By the Rev. A. C. HEADLAM, D.D., Principal of King's College, London. Cloth, $2.00. By mail $2.15.

"One of the most stimulating and satisfactory books of the last ten years."—The Living Church.

"It is not often that so good a collection of essays appears."—Pacific Churchman.

ROMAN CATHOLIC OPPOSITION TO PAPAL INFALLIBILITY

By the Rev. W. J. SPARROW SIMPSON. Cloth, $2.00. By mail $2.15.

"Where glimpses are given in this volume of the reasons for the popularity of the ultramontane position, much illumination is thrown on the transformation of the Roman Church during the last hundred years."—The Churchman.

"The list of authors quoted occupies five pages, giving an idea of the thoroughness with which the author has gone into the subject."—St. Andrew's Cross.

RELIGIOUS ORDERS IN THE ANGLICAN COMMUNION

By the Rt. Rev. R. H. WELLER, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Fond du Lac. Being the Hale Memorial Sermon for 1909. Paper, 10 cts. Postage 1 ct.

Two literary foundations were created by the will of the late Bishop Hale: being for a single annual sermon, and for an occasional course of lectures. The foregoing announcement relates to the Sermon for 1909. Apart from its own intrinsic value, an extended appendix shows the numerical strength of Anglican Religious Orders and compares it with the strength of the Orders suppressed by Henry VIII., thus proving that there are more Anglican Sisters to-day than there were at the time of the Suppression under Henry VIII.

THE WORK OF THE CHURCH IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

By the Rev. CHARLES SMITH LEWIS, B.D., Professor of the New Testament in the Western Theological Seminary. Being the Hale Memorial Sermon for 1910. Paper, 10 cts. Postage 1 ct.

"In these days when there is too much criticism and not enough instruction and encouragement, we welcome all that the author has said because of the spirit in which he writes. . . . We commend the sermon to rectors, officers, and teachers as well worthy of attention."—American Church S. S. Magazine.

Editorial

In once more presenting the comprehensive view of the state of the Church, so far as it can be gained from statistics, we are compelled to show that the gains of 1910 fall short of those of 1909, and that in several respects an actual decrease is recorded. That condition is, in part, due to the fact that the gains for 1909, as we observed in last year's editorial, were abnormal. If those of 1910 are less than normal, at least the average for the two years is about normal. We show this year an increase of two per cent in communicants as against three per cent last year, but the confirmations exceed those of last year by 51. The year's baptisms are less in each division—infant, adult, and not specified. There had been a healthy increase in this item during the past two or three years, where hitherto the number had often not held its own. It is a disappointment that the increase has not been maintained this year. In 1910 there was one person brought to Baptism for every 14.2 communicants, as compared with 1 for every 13.3 communicants in 1909. Ten years ago, in 1900, there was one baptism to 12 communicants; in 1890, one to 8.2 communicants. We have too often dwelt upon this subject in other years, however, to make necessary a repetition of what we have hitherto written.

There is this year a considerable decrease in marriages and burials; but the other decreases reported are not serious. There was also a decrease in marriages reported last year. That there are 30 fewer parishes and missions means only that the tendency to discriminate between missions and occasional preaching stations is growing. So much is said of the number of "parishes and missions" not contributing to missionary purposes, that dioceses are, for the protection of their good names, no longer reckoning their occasional points as "missions." And this is a move in the right direction; for in gauging missionary contributions, it is much to be desired that only actual parishes and missions shall be counted as assets. In the great majority of dioceses there has been the normal increase in this factor; but cuts from 251 to 190 "parishes and missions" in Pennsylvania, from 97 to 76 in Tennessee, from 70 to 59 in Maine, and from 142 to 116 in Chicago, afford such a handicap to the total that a net loss is the apparent result. When it is observed that these four dioceses have, within the year, dropped 119 places from their rolls of parishes and missions, while all but one of them (Pennsylvania) records an increase in communicants, it will be seen that the net loss of 30 does not imply an actual diminution of working strength. The loss of 100 in lay readers is in part due to the fact that 55 are dropped in the diocese of East Carolina with no explanation in the journal, and effort to locate the Bishop of that diocese by telegraph for the purpose of asking for the facts, failed. Very likely he could account for these if communication could have been established with him in time. Like many another feature of a work so hurriedly compiled as the ANNUAL must be, this must be accounted for as an apparent loss such as greater time for correspondence might probably have obviated.

The number of dioceses reporting actual decrease in communicants is 13, with one domestic and three foreign districts. These are Alabama, Atlanta, Fond du Lac, Indianapolis, Iowa, Lexington, Minnesota, Missouri, New York, Pennsylvania, Southern Ohio, Virginia, Western Michigan, Nevada, Hankow, Kyoto, and Mexico. In the table (p. 352) Oklahoma is also charged with a decrease of 176; but this is an injustice, due to the fact that 250 communicants are transferred to the newly created district of Eastern Oklahoma, so that the old district ought rather to have been credited with a gain of 74.

The other losses are in part actual and in part apparent. The census shows a decrease in population in the rural portions of the Middle West, and that decrease is reflected in the statistics of the Church in that section. How serious a condition is resulting from this cause was the subject of a recent editorial in The Living Church. Particular explanations are also given as to some dioceses at our request. The loss of 60 communicants (one per cent) in Western Michigan is more than accounted for by the dropping of 100 from the list of the Pro-Cathedral and 57 from Battle Creek. Both the Bishop and the Secretary state that the year has really been one of growth. In Fond du Lac similar pruning by new rectors at several places has accomplished the net decrease. In Alabama the Bishop feels that the Church is growing, despite the statistics shown, while in Atlanta, Virginia, and Lexington the pruning of lists in important parishes accounts for the loss.

Of course this phenomenon, of apparent loss by wholesale revision of parish lists, occurs year by year, and there are always dioceses seriously affected by it. That means that there is a continual drain upon our strength by migrations and by lapses into irreligion, and our statistics are bound ultimately to show the effect of it.

COMPARING the table of statistics gathered by our own research (p. 354) with that of the committee on the State of the Church reported to General Convention (p. 355), we find the discrepancies very small. Our own figures are slightly in advance of the official report. The latter shows, strangely enough, a continual decrease in candidates for orders during recent years but an increase in postulants and in clergy. In the latter, as shown by the ANNUAL figures, the year's gain has been 27, being $\frac{1}{2}$ of one per cent, the gain in communicants being four times greater. The number of depositions, 11, is less than for many years. There were 18 in 1909 and 41 in 1908.

The nine portraits printed in this issue are, in every case, a year ahead of the biographies of their subjects, which will find place in the Cyclopaedia section next year. This is due to the fact that the Cyclopaedia year runs from October 1st to October 1st, and there were no consecrations to the episcopate between October 1, 1909, and October 1, 1910, except that of Bishop Lloyd, which was anticipated in the publication for last year. More than a year elapsed between his consecration (October 20, 1909), and the next that followed, that of Bishop Beecher (November 30, 1910)—a length between consecrations that has not been paralleled for fifteen years. We should therefore have had no portraits at all this year, did we not advance those of the nine Bishops-elect to the present volume. The resumé of General Convention will also be given next year, falling, as the convention does, within the twelve months comprised in next year's Cyclopaedia section. This delay also is necessary, in order that the permanent record may be compiled from the official journal, and thus be more accurate than it could be made from other information.

One omission from this year's volume is a disappointment. The delay in giving out figures concerning the census of 1910 has made it impossible for us to incorporate those figures in this publication, or to base comparative statistics upon them, as we have been accustomed to do every ten years. This also must be deferred to next year's ANNUAL. In a very few instances the figures showing the population of states had been published before we went to press, in which instances the information will be found under the state headings; but these are too few to be of considerable importance.

Attention is directed to the fact that in addition to the standard Lectionary of the Book of Common Prayer, adapted, as usual, to the Kalendar for 1911, there is printed (pages 8-16*a*) the new alternative tables reported by the Joint Commission to the recent General Convention, and authorized for trial use until the General Convention of 1913. A full explanation in regard to this Lectionary is printed on page 8.

Alternate Tables of Lessons Authorized by The General Convention of 1910

There was presented to the General Convention of 1910 a Report from the Joint Commission on the Revision of the Table of Lessons, which incorporated an entirely new Lectionary, although based on that at present in use, and not changing the general underlying principles of the latter. The changes are chiefly in the interest of shortening the lessons, especially in the evenings of the Sundays after Trinity. "Comparatively few changes," says the report, "have been made in the present Table of Lessons for Holy Days, and these do not affect the principal Festivals." There are also a new Table of Lessons for the Eves of Holy Days and a Table for Special Occasions. Both these are entirely new and will be valued additions to our Lectionary. The Special Occasions thus recognized are: Morning or Evening Prayer when Confirmation is to be administered; Morning Prayer when an Ordination to the Diaconate, also to the Priesthood, also Consecration of a Bishop, is to follow; for services for setting apart a Lay Reader, a Deaconess, a Chorister; Meetings of Diocesan Conventions; Laying of Corner Stone; Opening of a Church on an occasion other than its Canonical Consecration; at Burial of a Child; Missionary Meetings; National and State Festivals; National and State Fasts; For the Close and the Beginning of the Year; Meetings in the interest of Young Men; Children's Services; Meetings in the interest of Christian Education, Temperance, Charitable Societies, Social Welfare.

These Tables were authorized by General Convention as an alternative use, permissive until the General Convention of 1913. Permission was granted also to use the Lessons appointed on any Day for Morning and Evening Prayer interchangeably at the discretion of the Minister. The Joint Commission on the Revision of the Tables of Lessons was continued and was authorized to prepare a supplementary Table of Old Testament Lessons, following the Hebrew Division of the Law, the Prophets, and the Writings, and giving extracts from the books not otherwise appointed for Sundays or Holy Days. The Tables are printed on pages 8*a* to 16*a* following. The standard Lectionary from the Book of Common Prayer, with pages for Memoranda, is printed on pages 24-47 inclusive.

ECLIPSES IN 1911.

In the year 1911 there will be two eclipses, both of the Sun.

I. A total eclipse of the Sun, 1911, April 28, visible at Washington as a small, partial eclipse, the Sun setting eclipsed. The eclipse begins April 28 days 7 hours 49 minutes, Greenwich mean time, is central April 28, 10, 16 at local apparent noon, and ends April 28, 13, 6, G. M. T. It is visible generally in the Pacific Ocean.

II. An annular eclipse of the Sun, 1911, October 21, invisible at Washington. The eclipse begins October 21 days 13 hours 20 minutes, Greenwich mean time; is central October 21, 1, 55 at local apparent noon, and ends October 21, 19, 7, G. M. T. It is visible generally in central Asia and thence to New Guinea and ends in the Pacific Ocean.

The distance from the earth is given in units of the mean distance of the earth from the sun, 92,800,000 miles.

Notes on the Kalendar

FOR THE YEAR OF OUR LORD 1911

The Lectionary in the accompanying tables is that adopted at the General Convention of 1886, being the only one now authorized. The "Table of Lessons for the Forty Days of Lent, and for the Rogation and Ember Days, which may be used in place of those appointed in the Calendar," is printed in italics through each of the above seasons. The alternate second lessons printed in italics for each Sunday evening are, in accordance with the following direction, placed in the Prayer Book by the General Convention of 1883:

"At Evening Prayer on Sunday, the Minister may read the Lesson from the Gospels appointed for that day of the Month, in place of the Second Lesson for the Sunday."

The following rules are also in force:

"If in any Church upon a Sunday or Holy Day, both Morning and Evening Prayer be not said, the Minister may read the Lessons appointed for Morning or Evening Prayer."

"Upon any day for which no Proper Lessons are provided, the Lessons appointed in the Calendar for any day in the same week may be read in place of the Lessons for the Day."

The numbers in parentheses, on certain days, in the Lectionary, refer to the following notes:

- 1.—First Sunday in Advent. Proper Psalms: Morning, 8, 50; Evening, 96, 97.
- 2.—Christmas Day. Proper Psalms: Morning, 19, 45, 85; Evening, 89, 110, 132. Use Proper Preface until and including the Circumcision.
- 3.—Circumcision. Proper Psalms: Morning, 40, 90; Evening, 65, 103.
- 4.—The Epiphany. Proper Psalms: Morning, 46, 47, 48; Evening, 72, 117, 135.
- 5.—Purification. Proper Psalms: Morning, 20, 86, 87; Evening, 84, 113, 134.
- 6.—Ash Wednesday. Proper Psalms: Morning, 6, 32, 38; Evening, 102, 130, 143.
- 7.—Annunciation B. V. M. Proper Psalms: Morning, 89; Evening, 131, 132, 138.
- 8.—Good Friday. Proper Psalms: Morning, 22, 40, 54; Evening, 69, 88.
- 9.—Easter Even. Proper Psalms: Morning, 4, 16, 17; Evening, 30, 31.
- 10.—Easter Day. Proper Preface to be used. Proper Psalms: Morning, 2, 57, 111; Evening, 113, 114, 118. "The Old Testament Lessons appointed for Easter Day may be interchanged, the one for the other, at the discretion of the minister."—Note from the Prayer Book.
- 11.—Ascension Day. Proper Preface. Proper Psalms: Morning, 8, 15, 21; Evening, 24, 47, 108.
- 12.—Whitsunday. Proper Preface. Proper Psalms: Morning, 48, 68; Evening, 104, 145.
- 13.—Trinity Sunday. Proper Preface to be read on this day only. Proper Psalms: Morning, 29, 33; Evening, 93, 97, 150.
- 14.—Transfiguration. Proper Psalms: Morning, 27, 61, 93; Evening, 84, 99, 133.
- 15.—S. Michael's. Proper Psalms: Morning, 91, 103; Evening, 34, 148.
- 16.—All Saints' Day. Proper Psalms: Morning, 1, 15, 146; Evening, 112, 121, 149.
- 17.—S. Andrew's Day is also Thanksgiving Day, if so appointed by the Civil Authority. (White.) Special Service in Prayer Book, page 319. Psalter discretionary. The 4th and 19th Selections are appropriate. First Lesson, Deut. 8. Second Lesson, I. Thess. 5, v. 12-24. In many churches the service of S. Andrew's Day will be used at the earlier and that of Thanksgiving Day at the later Eucharist.

ALABAMA, DIOCESE OF.

The question of the division of the diocese was determined adversely by the Diocesan Council, meeting in May, after there had been considerable discussion during the past two or three years. The Council appointed a Social Service Commission; and instructed its deputies to memorialize General Convention to examine errors, inaccuracies, and misstatements concerning the Church of England and the American Church as taught in many school histories, with a view toward correcting the same.

ARKANSAS, DIOCESE OF.

At the session of the Diocesan Council held in May the following resolution was passed by a vote of 25 to 3:

Resolved, That any plan for Christian Unity which involves a surrender or impairment of our belief in the superior and divine origin of the ministry of the holy Catholic Church as distinguished from the ministries of the Protestant denominations would be unacceptable to the clergy and laity of said Church in the diocese of Arkansas."

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.

The annual convention of 1909 was held in Providence, R. I., beginning October 13th, with Father Bull of the English Community of the Resurrection as a distinguished guest. The enrolled attendance was 792. For 1910 the convention was held at Nashville, Tenn., beginning September 28th. During the year past there have been chartered 37 new chapters and 72 probationary chapters, and 55 dormant chapters have been revived. In the Junior Department there are 56 new chapters, 64 new probationary chapters, and 17 revived. The contributions toward the Forward Movement Fund have been a little more than $20,350, being over $2,300 more than for the preceding year. There has been an increase in the number of local assemblies during the year. A week of prayer for the spread of Christ's Kingdom will be observed in Holy Week, 1911. There are five field secretaries.

Some information as to what is being done by chapters was given by St. Andrew's Cross in its issue for December, 1909, as follows:

BY SENIOR CHAPTERS.

- 93 per cent. regularly invite to Church and Sunday school.
- 86 per cent. regularly try to bring to the Sacraments.
- 81 per cent. have St. Andrew's Cross subscribers.
- 80 per cent. have members engaged in Sunday school work.
- 77 per cent. visit men in their homes.

The ill health of the president, Robert H. Gardiner, had compelled his absence from the Providence convention, and in March he felt obliged to resign his presidency. He was succeeded by Edward H. Bonsall of Philadelphia, a leading business man and member of the Standing Committee of the diocese of Pennsylvania, treasurer of the diocesan Board of Missions for ten years, treasurer of the committee for Work among Deaf Mutes, member of the Executive board of the Sunday School Association, one of the founders of the Church Club of Philadelphia, and for six years president of the Philadelphia Local Assembly of the Brotherhood. He was elected a member of the National Council of the Brotherhood in 1906, and in all these varied fields he has served with fidelity and efficiency.

The Brotherhood suffered during the year the death of its founder, JAMES L. HOUGHTLING (q. v.).

CALIFORNIA, DIOCESE OF.

In connection with the diocesan convention in January was laid the cornerstone of the future Cathedral of the diocese. The diocesan clergy, deputies to the Convention, the House of Churchwomen, the Cathedral Chapter, vested choirs of San Francisco, and officers of all city parishes and missions, were among those who marched in procession from the Fairmount Hotel to the site of the Cathedral. There was also a representative of the Servian branch of the Eastern Church in the person of the Rev. Sebastian Dabovitch, attended by an acolyte.

In the diocesan convention the tender was made to General Convention of the fourteen counties comprising the San Joaquin convocation to be created into a missionary district. General Convention was also asked to revise the lectionary. A beginning was made toward the creation of a home for disabled clergy at Pacific Grove.

Bishop Nichols celebrated the twentieth anniversary of his consecration of the Feast of St. John Baptist 1910, with a celebration of Holy Communion at the Pro-Cathedral, at which about forty of the diocesan clergy were present. The Archdeacon, speaking for the clergy, made an address of congratulation to the Bishop and presented him an album bound in vellum, and with a seal and key of California gold, in which were inscribed some 4,000 names of communicants of the diocese and personal friends of the Bishop, together with the earnest request that the Bishop, for the first time in twenty years, take a real vacation of six months' duration. Addresses were also made by the president of the House of Churchwomen, Mrs. George Herbert Kellogg, and by Mr. William H. Crocker, on behalf of the laymen of the committee, who stated that a few of the Bishop's personal friends, representing some of the old Church families of the diocese, being anxious to relieve him in part of his obligations as a corporation sole for debts on certain institutions, viz., the Seamen's Institute, the Good Samaritan mission, the True Sunshine mission, and the Japanese mission, and to restore the Randolph Fund to its original amount, and also wishing to increase the endowment fund of the diocese, have subscribed the sum of $92,000, to be paid in ten annual instalments, which should, at the end of ten years, reduce the indebtedness of the above-named institutions by $25,000 and so increase the endowment fund that, with the annual Whitsunday collections, it should by 1920 amount to $100,000.

CANADA, CHURCH IN.

The event of the year in Canada was the celebration in Halifax of the Bi-Centenary of the founding of the Church of England in the Dominion. The actual event commemorated was the first recorded instance of a service on the Canadian mainland according to the use of the Church of England. It was a service of thanksgiving for the victory of British arms held in the French fort at Port Royal, since called Annapolis Royal, in honor of Queen Anne, in whose reign the sixth and final capture of the fort took place, thus making the beginning of continuous British rule in what is now the great Dominion of Canada.

The place of this historic service was the French chapel of St. Anne within the fort.

The date of the service was Tuesday, October 10th, old style, in the year of our Lord 1710, and in the reign of Queen Anne.

The anniversary functions began with the dedication of the new edifice for All Saints' Cathedral, Halifax, on September 3rd, in which many Bishops, Canadian, American, and English, participated with a large number of other clergymen and lay people. There were joyful Sunday services in all the city parishes, and the Canadian Church Congress opened on the following Monday, extending through the early part of the week. The celebration closed with a grand function at Annapolis Royal at which the Bishop of London presented the King's Prayer Book, unfurled a flag in the old fort, and spoke to a great concourse, as also did the Bishop of Washington. The Bishop of Glasgow preached in the parish church. The procession consisted of about fifty priests and Bishops. The Rev. J. P. McComas of Annapolis, Maryland, conveyed greetings in a splendid speech.

The Bishop of Quebec sustained a stroke of paralysis in the winter which made it impossible for him to perform the detail work of the diocese. An attempt was made at a Synod of the diocese in May to elect a Bishop Coadjutor, but the attempt failed by non-concurrence of the laity. It was afterward arranged that the Rt. Rev. Walter Farrar, D.D., who retired during the year from the Bishopric of Antigua, West Indies, should act as assistant during the coming year.

The vacancy in the Bishopric of the diocese of New Westminster was filled by the election and consecration of the Rev. A. U. DePencier, rector of St. Paul's Church, Vancouver, B. C.

CANON 19 FUNCTIONS.

Events in which persons other than communicants of the Church have been licensed to speak for any purpose under the provision of Canon 19, have been very few during the year past, at least insofar as they have come to public notice. In October, 1909, a series of Sunday night addresses on the general subject of "Active Christian Citizenship" was given at Christ Church, Springfield, Ill., in the course of which one speaker was a Methodist, who was chosen because of his aptitude to speak on his special subject, relating to the public school. On Sunday, February 20th, at San Antonio, Texas, the Bishop of West Texas preached in a local Presbyterian church, and the minister of that church, the Rev. Arthur Jones, spoke in St. Mark's Church, both being in preparation for the forthcoming Laymen's Missionary Movement. At St. Andrew's Church, Philadelphia, on the evening of the First Sunday in Lent, at special services under the auspices of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Mr. H. Wellington Wood, a prominent Presbyterian layman, the author of Winning Men One by One, addressed the congregation on the subject, "A Great Business."

Some considerable discussion was had in the Church press over the fact that a Methodist minister, the Rev. Frank Moore, preached a sermon on Palm Sunday morning at St. Paul's Church, Rahway, N. J. (the Rev. C. L. Cooder, D.D., rector). On an occasion during the winter the Rev. Charles S. Davidson, rector of St. Mark's Church, Cleveland, permitted a former Baptist minister to preach for him in spite of the fact that the Bishop of the diocese had refused to grant permission. Mr. Davidson subsequently resigned the rectorship of the parish. In Pasadena, Calif., on a Sunday in February, John Willis Baer, a distinguished Presbyterian layman and expert in missionary matters, spoke at All Saints' Church in preparation for the Laymen's Missionary Movement convention. The fact was published in July that arrangements had been made by a clergyman of the diocese of Tennessee to permit a Methodist minister to preach in his church on a Sunday, the rector being absent, but the Bishop was able, under the new provision of Canon 19, to prohibit the event, and did actually prohibit and stop it.

CENSUS, RELIGIOUS.

There was published in this department in THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL for 1910 (pages 56-58) a considerable information derived from an advance bulletin of the Religious Census, officially published, and which is based on the figures of the year 1906. The complete report of that census is now published in two large volumes and the information concerning the Protestant Episcopal Church here given is supplementary to that published last year.

Of the 886,942 communicants reported in Continental United States, a fraction under a quarter are in cities of 300,000 and over; eleven per cent. in cities of 100,000 to 300,000; fifteen per cent. in cities from 25,000 to 100,000; and nearly forty-nine per cent. outside the principal cities. The average number of communicants in each organization (parish or mission) in the four classes of localities respectively is 411, 325, 295, and 80. The average value of Church property for each organization in the four classes of localities is $99,398, $41,257, $39,429, and $9,447. The average debt per organization for the four groups is $10,606, $8,014, $4,564, and $2,401. The average number of communicants per minister is 165, where in 1890 it was 128. The salaries of the clergy average $1,242; and divided into five groups of localities of which the first includes cities exceeding 300,000, the second from 100,000 to 300,000, the third from 50,000 to 100,000, the fourth from 25,000 to 50,000, and the fifth those outside the principal cities, these averages are respectively $1,873, $1,533, $1,558, $1,517, and $994.

In 177 churches, with an aggregate of 25,125 communicants, services are held in some other than the English language, though not necessarily excluding the latter. Languages thus included are Armenian, Chinese, Danish, French, German, Greek, Indian dialects, Italian, Japanese, modern Syriac, Swedish, and Welsh.

With respect to missionary matters our churches are credited with a total contribution within the year for domestic work of $2,665,133; and in the home field with 1,933 missionaries and 2,077 churches aided. In the domestic field there are 106 schools with 8,098 students; 136 hospitals, asylums, etc., with 47,236 inmates and patients. The total value of property held for educational and philanthropic purposes in the home field is $46,359,726.

In foreign work the Church is credited with $549,070 for work at 383 stations in seven countries. There are 221 American and 761 native missionaries. There are 96 separate Church organizations with 9,890 members. There are 180 schools with 6,950 pupils. There are 18 philanthropic institutions with 95,323 inmates and patients. The total value of property held in the foreign mission field is $1,271,548, but a footnote states that this is only a partial report.

For support of all domestic and foreign missionary work, including educational and philanthropic institutions, the Church gives $3,214,203, of which slightly under 83 per cent. is for domestic work and slightly over 17 per cent. for foreign work. Taking missionary contributions alone, apart from philanthropic, the amount given for home and foreign missions is $1,617,225, of which 66 per cent. is for home missions and 34 per cent. for foreign missions, and the average amount per communicant is $1.82, though there is an average of $3.62 per communicant for missionary and philanthropic work combined.

The number of Church organizations for colored people is fixed at 198, being four times the number reported in 1890. These include 19,098 communicants, being more than six times as many as in 1890. The value of Church property for colored organizations is $1,773,279, being about nine times as much as in 1890. The negro communicants of the Church are only one-half of one per cent. of all negroes reported as affiliated with Christian organizations, but in 1890 the proportion was one one-tenth of one per cent, so that the relative growth within fourteen years is 541 per cent. Of colored communicants 35 per cent. are male and 65 per cent. female. There are for this race 171 church edifices and 11 halls used for Church services. The value of Church property for colored organizations, reported by only 80 per cent. of those churches, is $1,773,279, being an average of $11,153 to each organization. Debts aggregate $113,246, being an average of $4,045 for each organization. Parsonages for colored churches number fifty-eight, with an average value of $2,844. Sunday schools in connection with colored organizations number 188 and include 1,189 officers and teachers and 13,779 scholars.

The reports include in very elaborate detail many of these statistics for each religious body, divided into states, counties, cities, etc., but it is impossible to give the space for recapitulation in that wise.

CENTRAL NEW YORK, DIOCESE OF.

Resolutions were adopted in the Diocesan Convention held in May, asking General Convention to take measures toward the correction of the legal title of the Church in this land. The action, which was unanimous, was as follows:

"WHEREAS, The development of our Church in this land has rendered her present legal title increasingly misleading and inadequate;

"Resolved, That this Convention desires to place itself on record as favoring such legislation as will lead to the adoption of a title for our Church that will adequately set forth to the world her claim to be a true branch of the holy Catholic Church."

CHICAGO, DIOCESE OF.

The past year has been one of notable anniversaries. St. James' Church, the mother parish of Chicago, kept its seventy-fifth anniversary; St. Paul's Church, Hyde Park, celebrated its fiftieth anniversary; and Grace Church, Oak Park, its thirtieth anniversary, all during November. Bishop Anderson celebrated the tenth anniversary of his consecration on St. Matthias' Day, when he received a number of personal gifts, including a purple silk cassock, a black satin chimere and fine white linen rochet; a rich but plain white festival cope with red orphreys and hood with the Agnus Dei embroidered on the latter; and a white and red mitre to match the cope; a gold chain for his pectoral cross, etc.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese celebrated its twenty-fifth anniversary in November, 1909.

At the Diocesan Convention the Bishop gave a very notable charge, entitled "Love the Brotherhood," which was printed in full in THE LIVING CHURCH of May 28th and June 4th. At the same convention pledges for diocesan missions amounting to $27,500 were subscribed.

CHINA MISSION.

A notable advance was made in the Missionary District of Hankow at a conference of missionaries, foreign and Chinese, held at the see city, February 22-27, when the plan already submitted by other Anglican dioceses in China for a general synod of the Anglican communion was adopted, and the missionary district for itself created a board of missions, which was to send one of the Chinese priests nine days' journey westward from Ichang into a region in which from one to ten millions of people have heard nothing of Christianity from any source whatever, and in which even the heathen religions are largely extinct. The whole outlook as presented to that conference was most hopeful. A request for a division of the Missionary District of Hankow was submitted to the American Board of Missions and was by that Board reported to the House of Bishops without particular recommendation.

In March there were serious riots at Chang Sha, at which much foreign property was destroyed and our own mission buildings were looted, so that our missionary, the Rev. A. A. Gilman, lost all his personal effects, including his library, but the building itself was not destroyed. These riots were caused by dissatisfaction with the imperial administration, rather than by direct hostility to foreigners or to Christians.

CHURCH CONGRESS.

The sessions of the Church Congress for 1910 were held at Troy, N. Y., when the following subjects were discussed: "The Individual and the Common Interests in Society," "The Teaching of the Old Testament to Children," "The Church of To-Day as a Factor in Human Progress," "Architecture as an Expression of Religion," "The Formative Influence of a Democracy Upon the Christian Church," "Revivals and Culture in Religion," "The Moral Limits of Prayer."

CONFERENCE OF CHURCH CLUBS.

The annual meeting for 1910 of the Conference of Church Clubs was held at Portland, Maine, June 7th and 8th. A memorial was ordered presented to General Convention asking that the historical assertions with which the pending Preamble to the Constitution opens, be corrected to read "This American Church, planted in America in the year of our Lord 1587, by the representatives of the ancient, holy Catholic and Apostolic Church of England, which held its first services on the continent of North America upon its discovery, under England's authority, on St. John Baptist's Day in the year of our Lord 1497," etc.

CONNECTICUT, DIOCESE OF.

The Diocesan Convention held in June discussed the question of division of the diocese or election of a Bishop Coadjutor and finally determined on the recommendation of the committee adversely to both projects, but ordered that $1,500 be appropriated for additional Episcopal services.

CUBA, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

At the Convocation of the Missionary District of Cuba, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"1. That it be made known to the General Convention that the Convocation of the Church in the missionary district of Cuba believes that the truth of Catholicism, which is a Christian heritage, demands that the word 'Protestant' be not used in the name of the Church in Cuba, nor in any kind of official literature of the Church used in Cuba."

"2. WHEREAS, The development of the Church in this land has rendered her present title misleading and inadequate—

"Resolved, That this Convocation desires to place itself on record as favoring such legislation as will lead to the adoption of a legal title for our Church that will adequately set forth her claims to be a true branch of the Holy Catholic Church."

EDINBURGH, MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

A "World's Missionary Conference," held at Edinburgh in June, was the occasion for the gathering of missionary experts, deputies from boards of missions of many societies in Europe and America, including that of the American Church. No representatives from Roman or Greek Christianity were present, but a letter of appreciation from the Bishop of Cremona in Italy was presented. The Church of England was represented by the two Archbishops and nine Bishops, as well as by other representatives of both great missionary societies of that Church.

ENGLAND, CHURCH OF.

The passing away of King Edward VII. and the accession of George V. are the most momentous items of the year's news in England, momentous to the Church as well as to the State. Curiously enough the Convocations of York and Canterbury held their regular sessions shortly after the accession of the new king, and it was afterward discovered that in doing so they had violated the ancient statutes of Praemunire, which provide for dissolution on the death of the king. Elections had been held shortly before the decease of the late king in connection with the elections for Parliament. The discussion of the Accession Declaration, which was very general after the death of Queen Victoria, was resumed with renewed interest upon the death of her successor, and with greater results. The government brought into Parliament a bill to describe the Church of England as "Protestant" and "Reformed," but so widespread were the objections against such a description of the ancient Church of England that the Prime Minister changed the form and it was finally adopted in language as follows:

"I do solemnly and sincerely in the presence of God profess, testify, and declare that I am a faithful Protestant and that I will, according to the true intent of the enactments to secure the Protestant succession to the throne of my realm, uphold and maintain such enactments to the best of my powers."

The Church suffered the death of Edward King, Bishop of Lincoln, who passed to his rest in March and who was one of the most beloved and trustworthy of the English Bishops. He is succeeded by the Rev. Edward L. Hicks, D.D. The diocese of Norwich lost its Bishop by the death of Dr. John Sheepshanks. These are the only changes in the diocesan episcopate of England during the year, though a Bishop was consecrated as Suffragan of Hull in the diocese of York in the person of the Rev. J. A. Kemthorne.

Difficulties over the differences between parliamentary and ecclesiastical laws concerning marriage and divorce have continued to give anxiety. A test case arising out of the workings of the new deceased wife's sister act was decided against the contention of the Rev. Canon Thompson, who maintained the ancient canon law of the Church, and was appealed to the House of Lords.

GEORGIA, DIOCESE OF.

An important incident of the year in Georgia was the celebration of the 175th anniversary of the coming of Charles Wesley to the colony, which was kept with services in which the authorities of the two dioceses within the state participated. The functions were held on St. Simon's Island, where Wesley held his first services for the troops of General Oglethorpe and the settlers on the island. Nothing is left of the original town or of the fort, but the present church, surrounded by its burying ground, is situated about half a mile distant from the ancient site.

HARE, WILLIAM HOBART, D.D.,

late Bishop of South Dakota, born in Princeton, N. J., May 16, 1838, died at Atlantic City, October 23, 1909. He was the son of a distinguished priest, the Rev. George Emlen Hare, D.D., LL.D., and was educated at the Episcopal Academy of Philadelphia and at the University of Pennsylvania, which latter he was obliged to leave at the end of his junior year by reason of trouble with his eyes. He then took up teaching for a time in connection with his studies for holy orders. He was ordained deacon June 19, 1859, by Bishop Bowman, and priest May 25, 1862, by Bishop Alonzo Potter of Pennsylvania. His diacunate was spent as assistant at St. Luke's, Philadelphia, and afterwards he was successively rector of St. Paul's, Chestnut Hill, and the Church of the Ascension, both in Philadelphia, until 1870, when he was appointed secretary and general agent of the Foreign Committee of the Board of Missions. In 1871 he was elected Missionary Bishop of Cape Palmas, West Africa, but declined. In the year following, at a special meeting of the House of Bishops he was elected Bishop of the Indian Jurisdiction with the title of Missionary Bishop of Niobrara, and with jurisdiction over the Indian tribes in the southern portion of Dakota. Accepting his election, he was consecrated in St. Luke's Church, Philadelphia, January 9, 1873, by Bishops Smith of Kentucky, Lee of Delaware, Williams of Connecticut, Potter of New York, Odenheimer of New Jersey, and Stevens of Pennsylvania. He remained thus with jurisdiction only over Indians until 1883, when the present missionary district of South Dakota was constituted, and Bishop Hare became its Bishop. At the time of his death he was the sixth of the American Bishops in order of seniority of consecration. His degree of D.D. was received from Columbia, Kenyon, and Trinity Colleges.

HOUGHTELING, JAMES L.,

founder of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, born in Chicago, November 29, 1855, died at Winnetka, Ill., July 28, 1910. Soon after graduating from Yale he became the head of a Sunday school class in St. James' Church, Chicago.

Later his boys' class became a Bible class, and still later, in 1883, this class formed the nucleus of an organization which to-day is world-wide in its membership and influence. He conceived the plan of an organization of men working along the lines of Brotherhood—each man to secure some other man for God's service. He took St. Andrew as his type and gave the saint's name to the newly formed organization. From this little group of men sprang the great Brotherhood of St. Andrew. For the first seven years of its existence Mr. Houghteling served as its president, since which time he has been most active in assisting the officers to establish the Brotherhood throughout the nation and in other countries. He served on the national council of the Brotherhood to the last.

In addition to this work his name has been identified very closely as an active leader in, and generous contributor to, the Chicago Y. M. C. A., having been its president for three years and its secretary fifteen years more.

INDIANAPOLIS, DIOCESE OF.

Work was commenced upon the new Cathedral for the diocese of Indianapolis by the turning of the sod for the purpose on the morning of August 4, 1910. The Cathedral will be erected of brick with stone facings in thirteenth century English Gothic style. The length will be 142 feet, and width at the transepts 63 feet. The interior of the Cathedral roofs will be open timber construction and finished, structural work in every case made to form the medium of ornament, the funds at the disposal of the architect not permitting of lavish expenditures. They will, however, allow the opportunity to erect a dignified and suitable Cathedral; harmonious and faithful architecturally; structurally a lasting home for the worship of the Church.

JAPAN, CHURCH IN.

The semi-centennial of the beginning of Protestant missions in Japan was celebrated last winter and the Bishops of the English and American missions were invited to participate. These Bishops unanimously declined to participate in the celebration, having sent a formal letter in which they expressed regret that "owing to the unfortunate title" and the implication attending the use of the word Protestant they cannot attend, nor give official nor formal support to the celebration. This letter was signed by the two American and two English Bishops, McKim, Partridge, Foss, and Cecil. It will be remembered that the Anglican missions in Japan are officially known as the Holy Catholic Church in that land, as the Roman missions are not, and that they have no affiliation with Protestant movements.

KANSAS, DIOCESE OF.

The cornerstone for the new Cathedral of the diocese was laid in connection with the Diocesan Council in June. Gifts and pledges amounting to $90,000 have been secured for the purpose and a Cathedral will be erected, not including the spires, at a cost not greatly in excess of that amount.

The architecture of the new Cathedral is Gothic, the detail being similar to twelfth-century Brittany, approximating to Early English. The length will be 170 feet, the width 100 feet, and the height of the two spires when completed 150 feet. The church will comprise chancel with ambulatories, transepts, nave of six arches with aisles, two towers, and a morning chapel. There will be a seating accommodation for 1,200. The material used will be Silverdale stone, which is similar to the famous Caen stone. The architects are Messrs. Root & Siemans of Kansas City. The ground on which the building is to stand is worth $30,000, but was already available, being part of property acquired in 1857 by the Rev. C. M. Callaway, first rector of Grace parish. The church property in the cathedral city of Kansas covers forty acres and is occupied, in addition to the Cathedral and guild hall, by the Deanery, the College of the Sisters of Bethany, the episcopal residence, and Christ's Hospital. In addition there is half a block on which the temporary building of the Kansas Theological School stands, and the site of the Church of the Good Shepherd and that of St. Simon the Cyrenian.

KANSAS CITY, DIOCESE OF.

An interesting incident of Church work was the reception by the Bishop of Kansas City of a Roman Catholic priest with his entire congregation and the organization of the latter as an independent Catholic Church under the direction of the Bishop of Kansas City acting by authority of canon 42 of the General Digest. The priest is the Rev. Johann Mareello and the work has been organized under the name of St. John Baptist.

KEARNEY, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

An interesting table was presented by the Bishop to his Convocation in 1909, showing the religious antecedents of 3,747 candidates whom he had confirmed within the past five years. The table is as follows:

LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT.

A general work of propaganda in the interest of better support for Christian missions and for the evangelization of the world was set on foot during the winter of 1909-10, under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement, which sent deputations of missionary speakers by two different routes from the Atlantic to the Pacific, holding conventions of several days' extent in many large centers. Churchmen participated in many of these conventions, and the Movement had the support of the Board of Missions by a resolution endorsing it and by the appointment of a coöperative committee of one hundred. The campaign closed with a Missionary Congress in Chicago on a large scale, at which Churchmen, organized in a conference by themselves, set forth an "address to Churchmen," in which they affirmed that "upon every Churchman rests the responsibility for:

"1. The 'local Parish'—which includes his own congregation and the community in which he lives.

"2. The 'Diocesan Parish'—which includes those parts of his diocese where the Church is unknown or weak, and where help is needed to establish it strongly.

"3. The 'National Parish'—which includes that part of our own country beyond the borders of his diocese where the Church as a whole is carrying on mission work.

"4. The 'World Parish'—which includes the non-Christian world, and especially those fields to which this Church has sent her representatives.

"We believe that the gifts of Churchmen for the work of the diocesan, the national, and the world parishes ought at least to equal the gifts for the support of the local parish."

They made also the following recommendations:

"1. The practice of mid-day prayer for the extension of the Kingdom.

"2. The use of the Sanctuary of Missions which appears in the monthly issues of The Spirit of Missions.

"3. That Churchmen enroll as members of the Church Prayer League and make use of its quarterly intercession paper.

"4. The use of carefully planned intercession services for the extension of Christ's Kingdom, and particularly that at every celebration of the Holy Communion some prayer for missions be used. Thus our obedience to our Lord's command, 'Do this in remembrance of Me,' is linked with the recognition of our duty to discharge His final commission to His Church: 'Make disciples of all nations.'"

MAINE, DIOCESE OF.

The tenth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Codman was celebrated on May 17th and 18th in connection with the Diocesan Convention. Opportunity was taken to make presentation of a cope and mitre to the Bishop on behalf of the clergy and laity of the diocese.

MASSACHUSETTS, DIOCESE OF.

Information was given at the Diocesan Convention in regard to the Cathedral fund, which at the present time amounts to $1,028,591, from which there is an income of $41,065.

McVICKAR, WILLIAM NEILSON, D.D.,

late Bishop of Rhode Island, born in New York City, October 10, 1843, died at Beverly Farms, Mass., June 28, 1910. He was the son of Dr. John A. McVickar, who was a prominent homeopathic physician in New York City for about fifty years. The Bishop's interest in homeopathic affairs came as a result of his father's connection with that medical school.

The Bishop's great-grandfather was John McVickar, who came to this country from Scotland and settled in New York City, where he became one of the leading merchants of his day. He was a very philanthropic man. He was a vestryman of Trinity Church from 1801 to 1812. He married Anna Moore of Newtown, L. I. Of their children, James McVickar was the grandfather of the Bishop. Bishop McVickar's mother was Charlotte Neilson, daughter of William Neilson, president of the first Board of Underwriters in New York.

His early education was received in a private school, one of the first in the new order of education. He was graduated from Columbia College with third honors in 1865, with the degree of A.B., and in 1868 received the degree of A.M. He was tendered a tutorship, but declined in order to enter the Philadelphia Divinity School in the fall of 1865. After one year there he went to the General Theological Seminary in New York, where he completed his course. He became a deacon in 1867, and was graduated in 1868, becoming assistant to the Rev. Dr. Stephen H. Tyng at St. George's Church, New York. In July of that year he was ordained priest and entered upon the rectorship of Holy Trinity Church, Harlem, beginning in a hall with eight communicants. Seven years later he left the parish with a large parish and Sunday school building, accepting the rectorship of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Philadelphia. He had prior to this time declined an election as rector of St. Paul's, Boston. He was consecrated Bishop Coadjutor of Rhode Island in 1898 and became diocesan on the death of Bishop Clark in 1903. He had been a member of the General Board of Missions and of the former Board of Managers, which preceded it, since 1877. In Rhode Island he took an active part in local movements for social advance. For six years he was president of the Rhode Island Anti-Saloon League. He was particularly interested in the Watch and Ward Society, whose work in this state is affiliated with the Anti-Saloon League. The Rhode Island Branch was founded while Bishop McVickar was president of the New England Watch and Ward Society.

Two years ago, when the temperance forces organized a committee of 100 to conduct the no-license campaign, Bishop McVickar accepted the chairmanship and took an active interest in pushing the campaign. He was also an official representative of the Anti-Saloon League in the State Council of the Federation of Churches of Rhode Island. He was a member of the committee on marriage and divorce and was largely instrumental in securing the indorsement by the federation of the plan for reform in the marriage laws, which later was adopted by the General Assembly. The legislation had for its chief aim the preventing of hasty marriages. Bishop McVickar was vice-president of the Rhode Island Branch of the Red Cross Society. He never was married, but lived with his sister, Miss Eweretta C. McVickar, who survives him. He also had a sister, Mrs. P. L. Hall of Ruddington Hall, Nottinghamshire, England.

MILWAUKEE, DIOCESE OF.

At the diocesan convention of 1910, held in September, permission was granted to the Social Service Commission to act officially on behalf of the Church in representing the moral sentiment of the people for or against bills that may be introduced into the legislature, and permitting them to appear before legislative committees in that behalf.

A proposition to divide the diocese was referred to a selected committee to report a year later.

MINISTERS RECEIVED.

The list of ministers of other religious bodies that have been received into communion with the American Church during the year is as follows:

Methodists	4
Presbyterians	4
Roman Catholics	2
Congregationalists	3
African Methodist Zion.....	1
Universalists	1
Evangelical Protestant	1
Old Catholic	1

MISSIONS—GENERAL.

The fiscal year of the Board of Missions closed on September 1st, with a better record than ever before. The offerings from congregations and individuals totaled $585,511, exceeding the total of the preceding year by $31,000. During the last two months of the year the unexpected payment of legacies helped greatly in reducing what at one time threatened to be a very heavy deficit. The bequest of $20,000 from the late Bishop of Rhode Island was forwarded to the Treasurer of the Board within a few weeks of his lamented death, and in accordance with the request of his family, was used to meet the heavy obligation of the year.

The appropriations of the Board for the past fiscal year were larger than ever before, reaching a total of $1,162,740. The income available to meet them was $1,121,162. This left a deficit on the year's work of $41,578, which must be added to the deficit of $32,955 with which the year began. The total deficit is therefore $74,533. This amount is fully covered by the Reserve Deposits, set aside by the Board to meet just such emergencies. The Reserve Deposits now total to $457,000. The amount temporarily withdrawn from them to cover the deficit must be replaced as soon as practicable. Until this is done the Board will be losing the benefit of the interest on the amount withdrawn, approximately, with the former deficit, $3,000 a year. This amount would pay the salary of a Missionary Bishop.

All the eight Missionary Departments established by the General Convention of 1907 have now been organized and have elected Department Secretaries. The complete list is as follows:

- DEPARTMENT 1: The Rev. WILLIAM E. GARDNER, 186 Upland Road, Cambridge, Mass.
- DEPARTMENT 2: The Rev. JOHN R. HARDING, D.D., Genesee Street, Utica, N. Y.
- DEPARTMENT 3: The Rev. THOMAS J. GARLAND, Church House, 12th and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.
- DEPARTMENT 4: The Rev. ROBERT W. PATTON, 412 Courtland Street, Atlanta, Ga.
- DEPARTMENT 5: The Rev. JOHN HENRY HOPKINS, D.D., 703 Ashland Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.
- DEPARTMENT 6: The Rev. CHARLES C. ROLLIT, 4400 Washburn Avenue South, Minneapolis, Minn.
- DEPARTMENT 7: The Rev. H. PERCY SILVER, Box 312, Topeka, Kan.
- DEPARTMENT 8: The Rev. L. C. SANFORD, 1215 Sacramento Street, San Francisco, Cal.

Because of the session of the General Convention, no meetings of the Department Councils were held during the autumn of 1910. All plan to hold meetings in 1911.

This table shows the offerings of the Church under the Apportionment Plan grouped according to Departments:

	Total of Apportionment for the dioceses.	Total of Amounts given by the dioceses.	Percentage of increase over preceding year.
Department 1.....	$ 84,200.00	$ 92,131.14	5 6/10

* Decrease.

Only 20 new missionaries were added to the staff of the distant missions during the last fiscal year. Of these Africa received 1; China, 9; Japan, 2; Haiti, 1; Cuba, 1; Mexico, 1; Porto Rico, 2; Philippines, 1; Alaska, 3.

The Board of Missions expressed its general approval of the purposes and plans of the LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT (q.v.) and instructed its secretaries to coöperate with it so far as practicable. Churchmen took an important part in many of the conventions held during the national campaign, as well as in the great congress in Chicago in May, 1910. The effect of the campaign has been evident in a number of dioceses which have for the first time given the full apportionment or have considerably increased the amount given during the preceding year.

The most notable event of 1910 was the World Missionary Conference in Edinburgh. It brought together a picked body of 1,200 delegates—missionaries, secretaries, and other home administrators and supporters of the missionary enterprise. Although the name of the conference was successfully divested of all divisive adjectives, and although the conference itself was marked by a truly catholic spirit, it was not fully representative of the Christian world, since both the Roman and Greek communions failed to send delegates. On behalf of the Anglican Communion the Conference was attended by the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the Bishops of Massachusetts, Chicago, the Philippines, Southwark, and Birmingham, and the Primus of the Scottish Church, besides many distinguished clergymen and laymen. The discussions centered chiefly around missionary needs and opportunities, methods, and policies. Ecclesiastical questions were not considered, though in the discussion on "Coöperation and the Promotion of Unity" much was done to lead to a better understanding between various communions.

After consultation with officers of the Board of Missions, the Order of the Holy Cross has begun the publication of a quarterly intercession paper on behalf of the Church's mission. Those using it are asked to enrol in the Church Prayer League. The intercession paper is based upon the successes and needs of the mission field as recorded in the Spirit of Missions.

MORAVIANS.

The Moravian Church at its international synod in June, 1909, adopted certain resolutions replying to the action of the Lambeth Conference of 1908 concerning relations between the two bodies. A committee of the Lambeth Conference had reported that apparently the historic succession had not been retained among the Moravians, and a plan submitted by the Conference was to the effect that an Anglican Bishop be invited to participate in future Moravian consecrations from time to time. The following action was taken by the Moravians in reply to that action:

"PREAMBLE.

"The General Synod of the Moravian Church (Unitas Fratrum), mindful of her ancient friendship with the Anglican communion, rejoices in the prospect of closer relations on the basis of our common Faith, and the service of our common Lord; and hopes that a step may thus be taken towards the greater Unity of Christendom, to the glory of our Father in heaven.

"With regard to the several proposals of the Lambeth Conference of 1908, this Synod resolves:

"I. That we welcome the resolutions of the Lambeth Conference (1908) on Intercommunion with our Church as expressing a true Christian desire for Unity; and while we do not hold any visible succession in the ministry is essential to the continuity of the Catholic body of Christ we accept mutual participation in the consecration of Bishops, if the authorities of either Church should give an invitation to the authorities of the other Church, as a fitting symbol of Intercommunion.

"II. That we adhere strictly to our principle that 'the Holy Scriptures are our only rule of faith and life,' and at the same time refer to the official statements of successive synods as showing that our understanding of the Scriptures agrees substantially with the recognized doctrinal standards of Reformed Christendom (e.g., the Nicene Creed, the Augsburg Confession, the Articles of the Church of England, and the Westminster Confession).

"III. That we hold that Intercommunion with the Anglican Church must rest on the same mutual recognition and freedom to coöperate as now exists between us and several Churches, Episcopal and others, in Europe and America; and, corporate union not being in question, we regard our position as that of an independent branch of the Church Catholic, 'an Ancient Protestant Episcopal Church' as described in the act of Parliament 22 Geo. II., cap. 120.

"IV. That we cordially agree in principle to the mutual recognition of the authorities of the respective Churches in their several functions; and in regard to the future position of our Bishops we consider that the interests of the effort towards Intercommunion will be best served, and possible misunderstandings be most readily avoided, if the principle of absolute independence within the separate jurisdictions of both Churches is observed and maintained on the basis of mutual ecclesiastical equality.

"V. That, although from the earliest days of our Church our custom has been, as in the Eastern Orthodox Church, to have the rite of Confirmation performed by the chief minister of each congregation, yet modifications in the administration of Confirmation, if desired by any Province, be sanctioned, provided they are not such as would raise any difficulty with regard to our fully recognizing the position of communicant members who have not been confirmed by a Bishop or of communicant members of other Churches which do not observe this rite.

“VI. That we should welcome any arrangements that might be made for the ministers of one communion to preach on special occasions in the churches of the other communion during the period of transition between the acceptance of the principles of Intercommunion and their formal ratification.

“VII. That the General Directing Board on behalf of any mission province, and the synod of any self-governing province on its own behalf, be empowered to take the needful steps to realize Intercommunion with the Anglican Church, in accordance with the foregoing resolutions; but that these resolutions shall become operative in any self-governing province only after the synod of that province has given its approval to them.

“VIII. That General Synod empowers the Bishops of the British Province, together with the British P. E. C. [Provincial Elders' Conference], to conduct future negotiations, as need arises, with the committee appointed by the Archbishop of Canterbury.”

NAME OF THE CHURCH.

The importance of the correction of the official title of the Church was again brought before the Church by resolutions of the diocesan conventions of Central New York, Vermont, Oregon, and the Missionary District of Cuba (q.v.).

NECROLOGY.

The clerical necrology will be found in its usual place immediately before the diocesan lists. It is deemed proper, however, to recognize some names of distinction in the long list of laymen who have passed to their rest within the year as follows:

RELIGIOUS: MOTHER RUTH MARGARET, founder of the Sisterhood of the Holy Nativity, at the Convent in Fond du Lac, May 28th. MOTHER CAROLINE DELANO, founder of the Community of St. Monica, at Springfield, Ill., March 13th. SISTER LUCY of the Order of St. John the Evangelist, at Brooklyn, May 31st. WOODWARD, officer and director of many large financial institutions of New York City and giver to charities, April 10th. MRS. SARAH TITUS ZABRISKIE, generous giver to the Church of the Transfiguration, New York, and to St. John's Church, Newport, R. I., and to many charities, member of the Altar Guild of New York City Mission, August 25th.

NEW JERSEY, DIOCESE OF.

Bishop Scarborough kept the 35th anniversary of his consecration with a very quiet service on the Feast of the Purification. On account of the recent death of Mrs. Scarborough no social features were attached to the occasion, but a large gathering of the clergy and laity testified to their affectionate regard for their Bishop.

The 125th anniversary of the foundation of the diocese was celebrated in connection with the Diocesan Convention in May.

NEW YORK, DIOCESE OF.

At the Diocesan Convention of 1909, held in November, there was a prolonged discussion of different methods of providing for additional Episcopal ministrations within the diocese, both by means of division of the diocese, a Bishop Coadjutor, a Suffragan Bishop, or assistance from other Bishops who might be found obtainable. The Bishop stated in his address that he was willing to consent either to a division of the diocese or to the consecration of a Suffragan Bishop, should authority for that be given by the next General Convention. The Convention adopted an expression favorable to the latter plan, though not without serious opposition. In the meantime the Bishop was requested to obtain such assistance from other Bishops as he might find necessary.

It was announced in April that the Cathedral of St. John the Divine would be assured an income of $55,000 a year, including pledges of $27,000 annually for five years which had been secured by the Bishop. This plan for five year pledges is a temporary arrangement, to be placed in operation until a sufficient endowment can be secured. The great choir arch has at length been completed and is the largest interior arch in the United States, being 123 feet from floor to crown and 45 feet in diameter. Most of the figures for the reredos have also been completed, the high altar and the Bishop's throne have been installed, much progress has been made on the organ, and it is hoped that the choir and crossing will be formally dedicated on the coming feast of St. John the Evangelist, December 27th. When the Cathedral is fully completed it will take the fourth place among the sanctuaries of Christendom. Those larger are St. Peter's, Rome; the Cathedral of Seville, in Spain; and the Duomo of Milan. The New York Cathedral will cover 99,500 square feet of ground.

The cornerstone of the building for the New York School for Deaconesses on the Cathedral grounds, in course of erection through the generosity of the late Archdeacon Tiffany, was laid on May 7th. The Tiffany legacy amounted to $120,000, and was conditioned on the building of the school close to the Cathedral and on its recognition as a memorial to Mrs. Tiffany.

NORTH DAKOTA, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

The first Convocation of Indian Churchmen in North Dakota was held on the three closing days of October, 1909, at Cannon Ball, and was in part a jubilation at the completion of the mission house, which the missionary, the Rev. A. McG. Beede, has built on to the church. The scenes in connection with this notable gathering of Indians were unique and picturesque. Some 300 were in attendance, using fifty tents for sleeping purposes.

OHIO, DIOCESE OF.

The twentieth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Leonard was observed with special services at the Cathedral on October 12, 1909. Some three hundred persons were in the procession that entered for the service, and a sermon was preached by the Bishop of Southern Ohio, after which complimentary addresses were made. The Bishop was presented with a silver loving cup, while also a life-size oil painting of the Bishop was unveiled and was formally presented to the diocese. A dinner was tendered the Bishop in the evening by the Church Club of Cleveland.

OKLAHOMA, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

A memorial asking for the division of the district was made at the Bishop's suggestion by the Missionary Conference of the Southwest, held at Oklahoma City in January. The importance of this memorial arises from the great population that has flocked into the state, much in excess of that of a number of adjacent states, and the inability of the Church to cope with the growth in its present conditions. Subsequently the Board of Missions in New York also recommended the same action, and the Convocation of the district itself at its meeting in May adopted a similar memorial.

OLD CATHOLICS, RELATIONS WITH.

Relations of Anglicans with Old Catholics appear to have been further embarrassed by the attitude of the Old Catholic Bishop Mathew in England. Beginning his Episcopate with professions of entire friendliness for the ancient Church of the land, Bishop Mathew has lately styled himself the representative of Old English Catholics, has resigned his membership in the Society of St.

Willibrord, and has denied the validity of English orders, taking the curious ground that the grace of orders flows only from the chief consecrating Bishop and not from those who act with him in Episcopal consecrations, so that a single break at any point involves a complete dissolution of the chain of continuity. He then questions the sufficiency of the baptism of certain English Bishops, and, therefore, the validity of consecrations of which they may have been the chief agent. It is proper to say that certain other Old Catholic Bishops have pointed out that Bishop Mathew speaks only for himself and not for the Old Catholic Episcopate generally, and, indeed, Bishop Mathew has stated the same.

OLYMPIA, MISSIONARY DISTRICT OF.

It was determined at the Convention of the Missionary District in May that a diocesan organization should be effected prior to the following General Convention, and at a charter convention called for the purpose in September the diocese was formed and deputies elected to the approaching General Convention.

OREGON, DIOCESE OF.

At the Diocesan Convention held in June a resolution was unanimously passed, asking for change of name on behalf of the American Church as follows: "That this convention desires to place itself on record as favoring such legislation as will lead to the adoption of a title for our Church that will set forth adequately to the world her character as an integral part of the Catholic Church." A resolution was passed, and a telegram sent, commending the governor of California for his strong stand in upholding law and order.

PENNSYLVANIA, DIOCESE OF.

A scheme of action with respect to General Missions was recommended in February by a committee appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, which is to comprise stated conferences, with at least two public meetings a year; services in all the churches of prayer and intercession for missions in connection with the meetings of parish missionary societies, etc.; weekly offerings for missions with the Duplex envelope system or some similar plan; parochial committees of men to arrange for offerings, services, missionary study, etc.

At the Diocesan Convention in May the diocese celebrated its 125th anniversary with also the 80th birthday of the Bishop, which fell on the opening day of the convention.

PITTSBURGH, DIOCESE OF.

The revelations of graft and civic vice on so large a scale early in April, led the Bishop to issue a Pastoral Letter, fixing a Sunday upon which he asked the clergy to preach sermons on civic righteousness, on true patriotism, on corporate repentance and confession, on individual and social purity, intemperance, and political chicanery, graft, and fraud, on the high duties of citizenship—on any topic, indeed which bears upon the present deplorable situation. The Diocesan Convention in May determined that division of the diocese shall be accomplished at such time as an endowment fund of $30,000 may be raised for the new diocese, in addition to nearly $38,000 to be paid from the present funds.

RHODE ISLAND, DIOCESE OF.

The diocese suffered the loss of its Bishop, the Rt. Rev. WILLIAM N. McVICKAR, D.D. (q. v.) by death on June 28. A special convention to choose his successor was held in Providence on September 21st, and the Rev. James deWolf Perry, Jr., rector of St. Paul's Church, New Haven, Conn., was elected on the seventh ballot. There was first an informal ballot upon which votes were divided among thirty candidates, those in the lead being the Rev. George McClellan Fiske, D.D., Bishop Brent, Dr. Alexander Mann, and Dr. Leighton Parks. On the first formal ballot Dr. Fiske, Dr. Parks, and Dean Hodges led in the order mentioned. Mr. Perry's name first appeared on the second ballot. He had more than the requisite number of lay votes on the fourth and each following ballot and was chosen on the seventh, when the vote stood as follows:

	Clerical.	Lay.
Total votes cast	54	151
Necessary to choice.....	28	76
Rev. J. DeW. Perry, Jr.....	30	106
Rev. G. McC. Fiske, D.D.....	16	30
Bishop Brent	4	8
Rev. Alex. Mann, D.D.....	..	5

ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

This useful institution for higher education under Church auspices kept its fiftieth anniversary in April, when large numbers of former students took part with the present student force and faculty in the celebration. A historical sermon was preached by the Rev. Dr. Manning, rector of Trinity Church, New York.

SOUTH CAROLINA, DIOCESE OF.

At the Diocesan Council in May a movement to divide the diocese was defeated, the clergy voting in favor but the laity against the proposition. In connection with the council there was commemorated the one hundredth anniversary of the Advancement Society of South Carolina.

SPRINGFIELD, DIOCESE OF.

An important report having reference to misleading statements concerning the Church of England found in school histories of England was presented to the diocesan synod. After relating steps that had been taken to secure the correction of school histories, the committee reported:

"We examined Everyman's History of the English Church, by the Rev. Percy Dearmer—an extremely interesting little book, beautifully illustrated. Price 50 cents. The Young Churchman Co. has brought out an American edition of it.

"We learn with satisfaction, also, that the MS. of a book, by the Rev. John S. Littell, of Keene, N. H., is likely to be issued shortly by The Young Churchman Co. It deals tersely with the objectionable statements in question."

TENNESSEE, DIOCESE OF.

The first meeting of the Convocation of Colored Churchmen in Tennessee was held in March. This gives the negro Churchmen in the diocese the opportunity to be autonomous and direct their own affairs. It is stated that for the first time all the colored congregations in the diocese will this year pay more than their full apportionments for general missions.

TEXAS, DIOCESE OF.

The Diocesan Convention held in May considered the subject of the election of a Bishop Coadjutor, but deferred action until another year.

TRINITY CHURCH, NEW YORK.

So much has been said in regard to the condition of tenement property held by Trinity Church, New York, for its endowment, that much interest pertains to the very complete report on the subject made after a very thorough investigation by the Tenement House Committee of the Charity Organization Society. The work of inspection covered more than three months and was performed by experts under the direction of that society. A long and detailed report was subsequently printed, in which the corporation was exonerated on all the charges that had been made against it. The property was shown to be in generally good condition, though some needed improvements were suggested and the matter treated in great detail. It was shown also that rents averaged considerably less than those in like property elsewhere. The following is a summary of conditions discovered:

"According to the conditions disclosed in the investigation, the houses may be grouped into three classes.

"The first includes buildings in good condition throughout, or with only minor defects, such as small leaks in the roof, barely enough to stain the ceiling, defects in outside rain pipes, or one or two rooms the walls of which need repapering or repainting. Most of the houses—that is, 208 buildings, sixty-two per cent of the whole number—belong to this class.

"The second class includes buildings with some or many defects, ranging from houses almost in the first class to houses almost in the third class. In this class there are 112 houses or thirty-four per cent of the whole.

"The third class includes houses in bad condition. This class includes fourteen houses, four per cent of the whole.

"The impression made by this house-to-house study of the buildings is that the houses in good condition throughout (nearly two-thirds of the total) are of great value to the community. They give at low rents quiet, comfortable, private living quarters, free from over-crowding, in the heart of the city and within walking distance of the downtown business district. The cheaper houses compare favorably with the model cottages conducted in Philadelphia by the Octavia Hill Association, for tenants of very limited means who are obliged to live in the city near their work. The more expensive buildings give still better accommodations with additional comforts and small luxuries.

"There are defects in about one-third of the houses, which need improvement and cause criticism to be made of the owner; but, on the other hand, they are on the average in the class with buildings of the vicinity and frequently are much better. If they were torn down the probable result would be that the tenants would move into other houses in the same neighborhood, to which they are closely bound by business, political, church and other affiliations, and in these they would be more overcrowded, and would pay higher rents for accommodations probably not so good.

"In the twelve houses reported in bad condition the defects were largely defects of maintenance. Walls and ceilings were dirty, plaster was broken, plumbing fixtures were foul and in poor repair. There were some unlighted interior rooms, but the greater number of defects were not inherent structural defects."

UNITY, CHURCH.

Whether this much desired end has been brought materially closer during the past year may not be certain, but at any rate there have been attempts made. A commission of the Lambeth Conference, which included the Bishop of Marquette with several English Bishops, visited Sweden in the promotion of better relations between the Anglican and Swedish Churches and in order to study at first hand the difficult subject of the validity of Swedish orders. There was some reason to believe that a more eirenic sentiment was aroused among Christian people in America through the meetings of the LAYMEN'S MISSIONARY MOVEMENT conferences (q. v.) and of the Chicago Missionary Congress, and at the latter a very notable address by the Bishop of Chicago aroused much enthusiasm.

With Oriental Christians there continue to be mutual approaches, and hopeful literature has been issued on behalf of the Anglican and Eastern-Orthodox Churches' Union. The Syrian Bishop in America has formally requested the clergy of the American Church to perform certain priestly ministrations for his people when they were not within reach of the Syrian clergy, and has made suggestions as to the convenient method of administering the sacraments on the request of his own people.

There was formed and incorporated in July a "Christian Unity Foundation" on the part of Bishops, clergy, and laymen of the Church, whose object should be to promote Christian unity throughout the world.

VERMONT, DIOCESE OF.

The Diocesan Convention in June took action asking for a correction to the legal title of the American Church in the following language:

"WHEREAS, The development of our Church in this land has rendered her present legal title increasingly misleading and inadequate:

"Resolved, That this convention desires to place itself on record as favoring such legislation as will lead to the adoption of a title for our Church that will adequately set forth to the world her claim to be a true branch of the holy Catholic Church."

VIRGINIA, DIOCESE OF.

The diocese celebrated the 125th anniversary of its foundation at the Council in May, when historical addresses were given and tablets were unveiled in memory of two of the early clergy, the Rev. Miles Carey Selden, for thirty-three years rector of St. John's Church, Richmond, and of the Rev. John Buchanan, D.D., rector of the same church.

THE AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

Established October 25, 1880, by the General Convention. Consists of all Bishops, and twenty members at large appointed by the Presiding Bishop. It aims to raise a fund of $1,000,000 by annual offerings from all congregations (as recommended by the General Convention) and by individual gifts. Portions of the principal are loaned to build churches and rectories: Out of the accumulated interest donations are made to complete new churches. The officers of the corporation are: President, Rt. Rev. Edwin S. Lines, D.D.; Vice President, Rt. Rev. C. Kinloch Neison, D.D.; Second Vice President, Mr. William G. Low; Secretary, Gen. James Grant Wilson; Treasurer, Mr. George Gordon King; Corresponding Secretary, Rev. J. Newton Perkins; Assistant Treasurer, Mr. E. Walter Roberts. The office of the Commission is at the Church Missions House, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York. The amount of the Fund is $502,729.08. Has made gifts amounting to $125,534.88.

GENERAL CLERGY RELIEF FUND.

The Official General Society for Pension and Relief.

The General Convention recommends an annual offering from each church; that a percentage of the Communion alms be given to this fund; that it be remembered in legacies, bequests, and wills; and given the royalty on the Hymnal.

This fund systematically secures and pays out pensions and annuities to over 600 persons (clergy, widows, and orphans, the family unit) "upon the basis of need and character alone," without regard to age, diocese, or payment of premium. The By-Laws of 1859 and canons provide for Automatic Pension at 64 upon designation of offerings. It is the only pension and relief fund of over sixty dioceses merged with it. Annual subscriptions earnestly solicited. All churches and clergy should be on the records. Remember the fund by legacies and bequests in wills.

Trustees—Rt. Rev. O. W. Whitaker, D.D., LL.D., President; Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, D.D., Vice President; Mr. Elihu Chauncey, Secretary; Rev. Reese F. Alsop, D.D., Rev. William T. Manning, D.D., Mr. George W. Pepper, Mr. Henry Lewis Morris.

Central Office (to which all communications should be addressed), The Church House, 12th and Walnut Sts., Philadelphia, Pa., Rev. Alfred J. P. McClure, Treasurer and Financial Agent.

FOR MEN.

The Society of Mission Priests of S. John the Evangelist.

(Founded at Cowley, in England, 1865; established in this country in 1872.) The society is formed for the mutual assistance of its members in striving after Christian perfection, obedience to our Lord's counsels, and for the advancement of God's glory by such mission works as God in His providence may suggest. Lay brothers are associated with the Priests in dedication of life and work. The Mission Church of St. John the Evangelist, Boston, Mass., is the center of the Society's work in the United States. Among external works the Fathers give themselves especially to the preaching of missions where their assistance is invited by the parochial clergy, and the conducting of Retreats for Clergy, religious communities, and devout lay people. Address: The Rev. Father Superior, 33 Bowdoin St., Boston.

“The Order of the Holy Cross.”

(Founded 1881.) A Religious Order for Priests and Laymen. Objects: The cultivation of the spiritual life of its members and the practice of good works, especially in the conducting of Missions, Conferences, and Retreats. The Order has charge of St. Andrew's School for mountain boys at Sewanee, Tenn., and Kent School for boys at Kent, Conn. Applications and communications may be addressed to the Father Superior, O.H.C., West Park, N. Y.

THE SOCIETY OF THE OBLATES OF MOUNT CALVARY.

An Association of Clergy and Seminarists united with the Order of the Holy Cross in a life of devotion for the fulfilment of their priestly vocation. The members of the Society are pledged to live under a Rule suited to their condition of life; and they share with the Order in its spiritual works of mercy, and, in part, in its devotional observances.

The Congregation of the Companions of the Holy Saviour.

A society of Priests and Candidates for Holy Orders, living under a Rule for the strengthening and development of their spiritual and sacerdotal life. Its work is mainly parochial. Retreats for Priests are held several times during the year. Master of the Congregation, Rev. F. D. Ward, 1606 Mifflin St., Philadelphia.

Diocesan Statistics and Clergy List

Diocesan officers of national organizations, such as Woman's Auxillary, Girls' Friendly Society, Brotherhood of St. Andrew, etc., and also officers of Church Clubs and of Sunday School organizations, are printed in the department of General Institutions, pages 111-129.

The statistics of each Diocese and Missionary Jurisdiction have been compiled in nearly every case, from the official statistics given in their respective journals, and the sheets have been revised by the Bishops or Secretaries of the Dioceses, to the latest moment possible. The numbers following the name of a Parish indicate the reported number of Communicants therein. The Clergy will confer a favor by forwarding corrections to be made in the next issue of THE LIVING CHURCH ANNUAL promptly to the office of THE YOUNG CHURCHMAN CO., 484 Milwaukee Street, Milwaukee, Wis.

Names of clergymen recorded are confined to those officially reported in diocesan journals or otherwise certified to the publishers as in good standing in some American diocese.

Titles of Institutions enclosed in quotation marks are those of legal corporations.

Arrangement of Parochial Lists

Each clergyman's name appears ONCE under the head either of "Parishes, Missions and Clergy," or "Non-Parochial Clergy," in the Diocese with which he is canonically connected. Where one of his cures is also his P. O. address, his name will there be found. If he has no cure at his P. O. address, his name will appear at his cure, with his P. O. in parentheses. Lesser points ministered to by the same clergyman will have references in italic to his main cure. Thus:

"Athens, S. Timothy's, r. New Decatur."

This reference in italics indicates that the rector of New Decatur is in charge of S. Timothy's, Athens. His name will be found by looking at "New Decatur." This obviates the delays, expense, and annoyance of sending mail matter for the rector of New Decatur to his lesser cure at Athens.

Where the P. O. is not the same as the principal cure, it is designated thus:

Montevallo, S. Andrew's, T. J. Beard, D.D. (Birmingham).

This shows that the missionary at Opelika resides at Birmingham, but has no charge in the latter city.

This method has the advantage of showing at a glance the correct P. O. address of each of the clergy in any given Diocese, and also shows which is the principal, and which the lesser, charge of any one clergyman.

r.=rector; m.=minister, missionary; loc. ten.=locum tenens; rec. emer.=rector emeritus; off.=officiating; cur.=curate. Names in italics (found only in certain Missionary Districts, as Alaska) are those of lay workers.

The figures for the missionary district of South Dakota are those for the year of 1908, and the figures for the Panama Canal Zone are for the year of 1909, no later statistics being obtainable.

The figures for Porto Rico, so far as given, are for 1910, except the "Present Number of Communicants," which number is for the year of 1908.

The amount of contributions, as given for Duluth, is approximate.

The Society for the Increase of the Ministry

FOUNDED A. D. 1857.

President—RT. REV. CHAUNCEY B. BREWSTER, D. D., Hartford, Conn.
 Recording Secretary—REV. STORRS O. SEYMOUR, D. D., Litchfield, Conn.
 Corresponding Secretary—REV. F. D. HOSKINS, Hartford, Conn.
 Treasurer—ELIJAH C. JOHNSON, Esq., National Exchange Bank, Hartford, Conn.

This Society provides Scholarships for Students preparing for the Ministry of the Church. It confines its work to those who are taking a full academic course in approved Colleges, or the prescribed Seminary course, being college graduates.

For the last twelve months there have been fifty-six applicants. Thirteen hundred and sixty-eight students have been helped in fifty years. At present there are students on the Society Scholarships from every part of the National Church. Much of the work is of a Missionary character. The Church greatly needs such an agency. Contributions from parishes and individuals asked for.

Address, REV. F. D. HOSKINS, 11 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, Conn.

What is Music? How should it be played?

Music is the medium used by composers to convey their thoughts, and is their way of telling a story.

Their heartaches, their passions and pleasures are told in their music. And to get their full meaning, proper rendition, interpretation, and expression are necessary.

The A. B. Chase Artistano with its sweet tone, and incomparable player mechanism, becomes the second medium by which we all may listen to the work of our favorite composer, with a feeling befitting the music rendered.

Communion Wines

THAT GIVE PERFECT SATISFACTION

Recommended by the Right Reverend Bishop of the Milwaukee Diocese, used by the Bishops at a number of Cathedrals, and the Reverend Clergy all over the United States. A Communion Wine absolutely pure, mild, and pleasing in every respect. Such are the facts concerning the celebrated Pommer's Golden Gate California B. Q. Malvoisie Altar Wine. An Altar Wine most agreeable, delicate, and delicious.

Whenever a Red Sweet Communion Wine is preferred, Pommer's Golden Gate B. Q. Mataro has proven most satisfactory.

The B. Q. MALVOISIE and B. Q. MATARO GRAPE WINES are also recommended by the following noted Milwaukee physicians: J. F. JERMAIN, M.D., Professor of Medicine in Wisconsin College of Physicians and Surgeons; DR. HENRY HARDER, instructor in Surgery and Assistant Surgeon, Milwaukee Medical College; DR. A. MOELLER; DR. WILLIAM SICKLES; DR. WILLIAM JOBSE; DR. JULIUS BRUESS.

PRICE Per 5 gallon keg $7.50; per 10 gallon keg $14.00
Per 12 bottle case $5.00; per 25 bottle case $10.00

FREIGHT CHARGES PREPAID on above quantities when the money accompanies the order, excepting shipments to the following states: Ark., Okla., Tex., La., Ala., Miss., Ga., Fla., N. C. and S. C. To above named states freight will only be paid on orders amounting to $10.00 or more. For particulars see price list.

You Get Quality and Save Half on Church Windows

Quality comes first in selecting church windows. The life work of our artists is making beautiful church windows. They are skilled in coloring and figure painting. This artistic beauty and craftsmanship must be greatly in evidence in a memorial window. It is the most desirable quality. We cannot too strongly emphasize the fact that we maintain the highest quality in perfect artistic beauty.

THIS BEAUTIFUL WINDOW WAS MADE FOR THE THIRD PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF MEMPHIS, TENN.

The photograph is excellent proof of our claim that no better or more beautiful art glass is produced in the world than in the studios of The Foster-Munger Co. Our prices are from one-fourth to one-half less than those asked for many inferior productions. The reason we can do this and save money is very simple. We are the largest concern of the kind in the world—volume of production—perfect organization—and high standing enables us to sell the finest windows for less money.

We will gladly send free our beautiful new book showing over 200 designs, church windows, etc., in actual colors. We prepare special designs and submit estimates without obligation on your part. Have your building committee or pastor confer with us. We willingly furnish advice and suggestions without charge of any kind.

The Southern Churchman

A FAMILY CHURCH PAPER

Published by the Southern Churchman Co., Richmond, Va.

Two Dollars a Year

To clergymen, One Dollar a Year

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN is the oldest Church paper in the United States, having been published continuously for seventy-six years under the name it now bears.

It gives all the important news of the Church at large and of the various Dioceses.

Its Family and Children's Departments are filled with bright, entertaining, and instructive reading matter, making it a welcome visitor to old and young in the household.

ITS MOTTO:

"Catholic for Every Truth of God; Protestant Against Every Error of Man"

It is courteous and fair in its statements and criticisms; conservative in its principles, not recognizing any faction in the Church, but gladly conceding the sincerity of those whose views of Church administration differ from its own, holding them as brethren in the Lord and of the same Household of Faith.

Its Churchmanship is that of the Prayer Book, as interpreted by the use of the American Church.

THE SOUTHERN CHURCHMAN will be glad to receive and publish news of Church work from any part of the country.

Specimen Copies Free, or a Three Months' Trial
Subscription for 25 Cents

WHY THOUGHTFUL CHURCHMEN SHOULD READ

The Living Church

1. It is an endeavor to stimulate thought among Churchmen concerning the intellectual issues at any time before the Church.

2. It has a definite editorial policy, and is at the same time frank and outspoken, but courteous and fair.

3. It gives full opportunity for the presentation of views differing from those of the editor.

4. It presents papers on themes of interest in religious and sociological subjects. The Department of Social Welfare, edited by CLINTON ROGERS WOODRUFF, is an important feature.

5. It presents the News of the Church in readable form. There are regular London, New York, and Chicago News Letters, and news from correspondents in every part of the United States.

6. There is a department devoted to Church Music, edited by G. EDWARD STUBBS, Mus. Doc.

☞ Don't take your view of Church Matters from the Secular or Interdenominational Press.
